On the left, there is a tall yellow rectangle, a red rectangle of similar height to its right, and a small yellow square below the tall yellow rectangle. To the right of the red rectangle is a small yellow square and a small red square stacked vertically. Below the red rectangle is a yellow rectangle. At the bottom left is a yellow square. At the bottom right is a long, wide red rectangle.

Sup't of Schools, Julius F. Schipper oversees the activities of the Zeeland Public School system. We would like to thank Mr. Schipper for all the time and effort he has put forth to make this school year a success.

Miss Lola Padding proves to be invaluable as she supervises the clerical work of Z.H.S.

Miss Judy DeRoo exhibits her typing skills in addition to other well-learned office practices.

Mainstay of Z.H.S.—The Administration

The administration of Zeeland High School has proved to be very capable in handling all problems --incredible or just routine-- with conviction.

Faithful to his daily task, Mr. Marcellus De Jonge calls the home of each absentee to confirm this excuse.

Our faithful knights of the round table, the school board, are the hub of the wheel around which revolves the school. Solving the problems continually placed before them, they burn the midnight oil every Tuesday night. They are left to right: Dr. Alfred Vande Waa, treasurer; Mr. Julius Schipper, superintendent; Dr. H. Russell Munro, vice president;

Mrs. Selles' part-time help in the office is provided by Mrs. Marian Voorhorst. She assists in any way possible to assure efficiency.

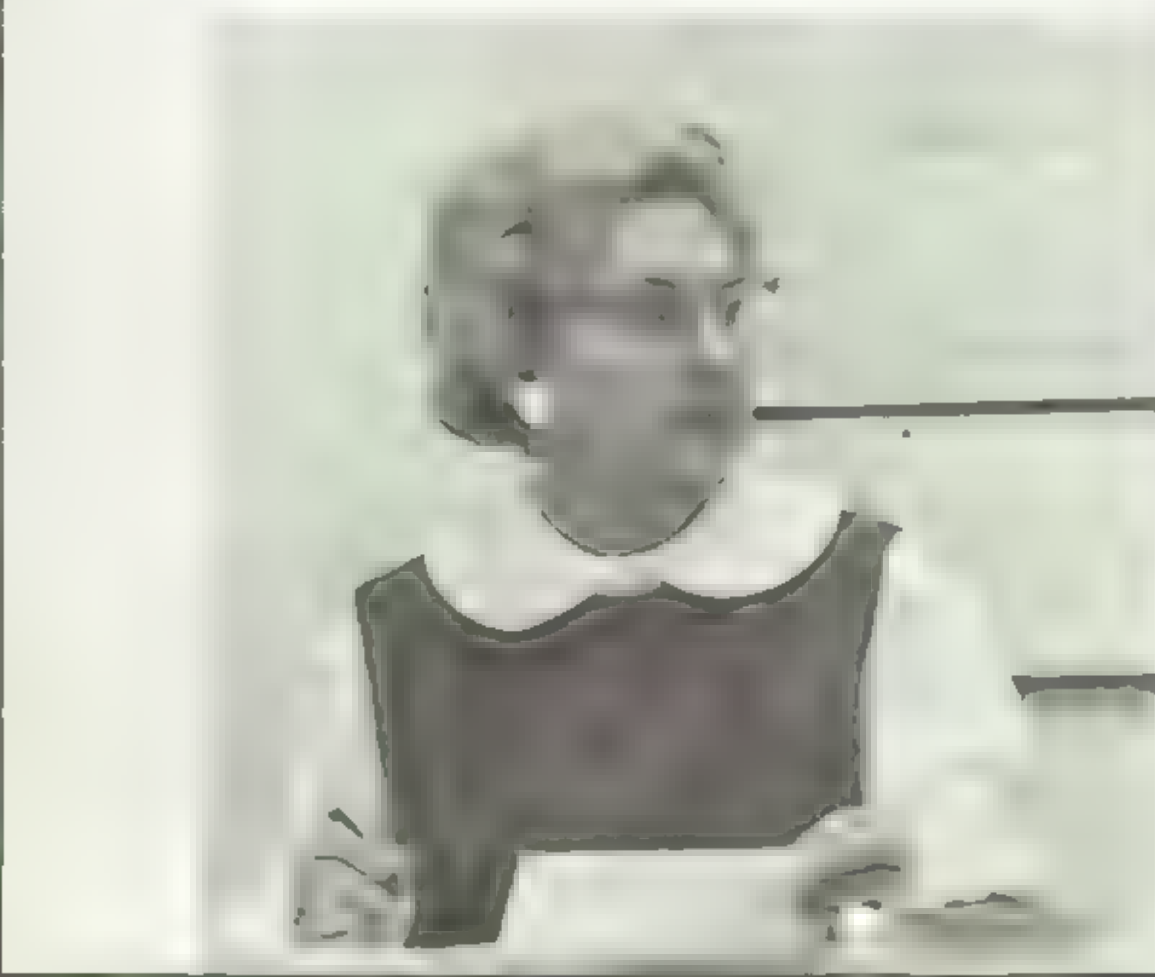

Mr. Marvin DeWitt, trustee. Mr. Melvin Boren, trustee. Mr. Richard Machiele, president. Mr. Charles ... trustee. Mr. ... de Pree, trustee; Mr. Laverne Lan ... and Mr. ... secretary.

The ... principal, Mr. ... are great ... the challenge ... with students during ...

Alert, well-liked ... that's Mrs. Esther Soles, Mr. ... She obviously enjoys her work and is always willing to go an extra mile to help anyone.

Beneficial Services Are Rendered by Faithful Employees

Few students appreciate all the effort that goes into keeping ZHS clean and comfortable. Our custodians work late into the night to make sure everything is in proper order for the next school day.

Head custodian Juke Bartels proves that a janitor's work is never done. He has many duties including minor repairs.

Spending many long hours at his job, George Nynhuis assists in the maintenance of Zeeland High.

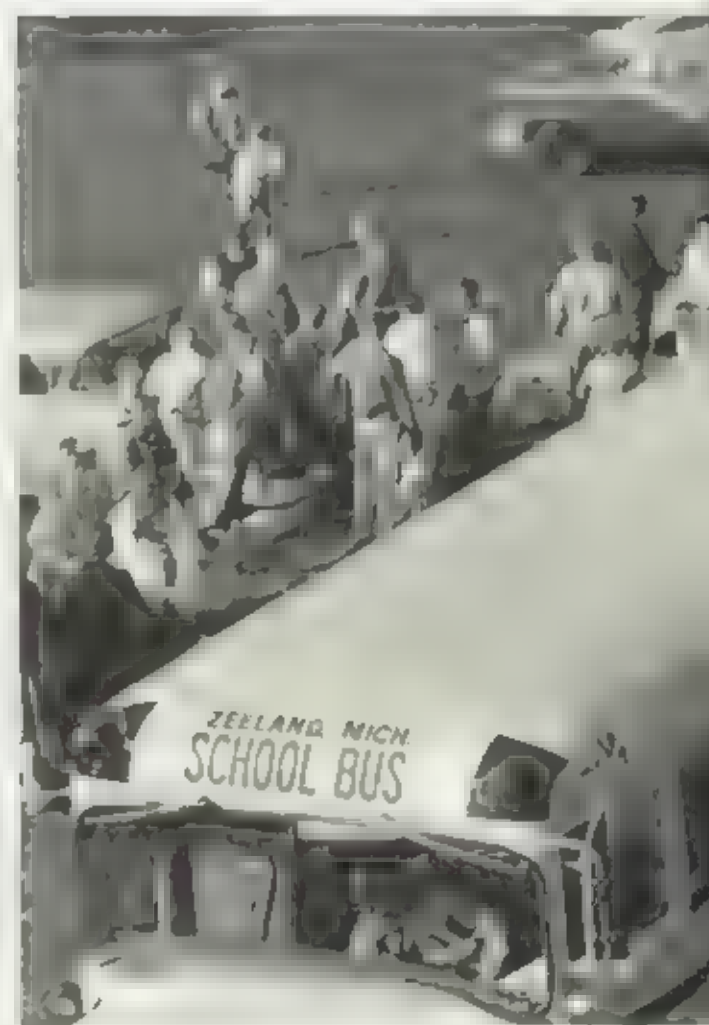

Helping to provide pleasant surroundings for students and faculty is Janitor Jim Scheele.

Hot noon lunches prepared in our new cafeteria are a pleasant sight to hungry students

John Wederveen sweeps the hall in preparation for the next day's activities.

For many students the day begins and ends with a noisy, bumpy bus ride. Although a bus is no place to do homework it's a good place to talk and have fun

Counseling: A Full Time Job

Busy, busy, busy. The job of a counselor at Z.H.S. is never finished. Aiding in choosing subjects, selecting colleges, ironing out personal problems, sponsoring various organizations--these are just a few of a counselor's many duties.

Mr. Jarold Groters spends many hours in preparatory thought and study before aiding Senior students in their choice of future vocations.

Miss Mary Hager acts as both teacher and counselor, who guides and directs in both courses.

Taking a few minutes out of his busy schedule, Mr. Arthur Lee settles back and scans recent information on counseling.

English department chairman, Mrs. Vivian Cook, enjoys presenting the many facets of the English language to her Senior and Freshman students.

Mr. Edward Van Hartsvelt gives ear to an opinion expressed by one of his English students.

Mrs. Sharon Benes muses over the day's activities as she decorates her bulletin board in her sophomore English class.

"Comprenez-vous mademoiselle?" asks French teacher Miss Cecelia Ver Hage as she leans over to help an aspiring French student

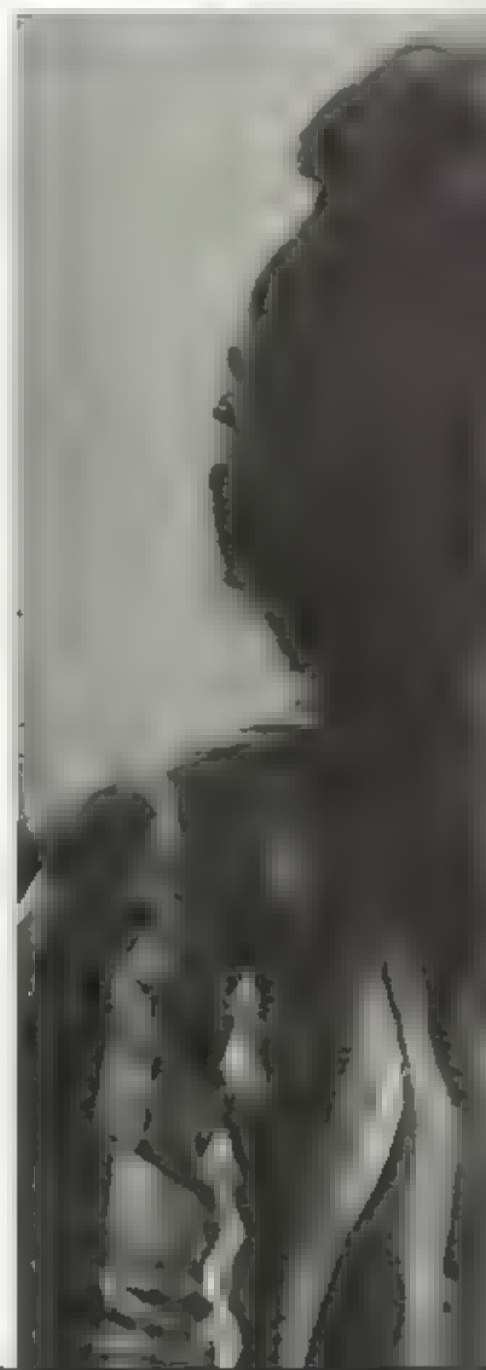

A thoughtful look appears on Dorothy Van Dam's face as she ponders the literature of the Elizabethan Age.

Language:

Settling down to his normal routine, Mr. Robert Larsen explains the mysteries of the English language

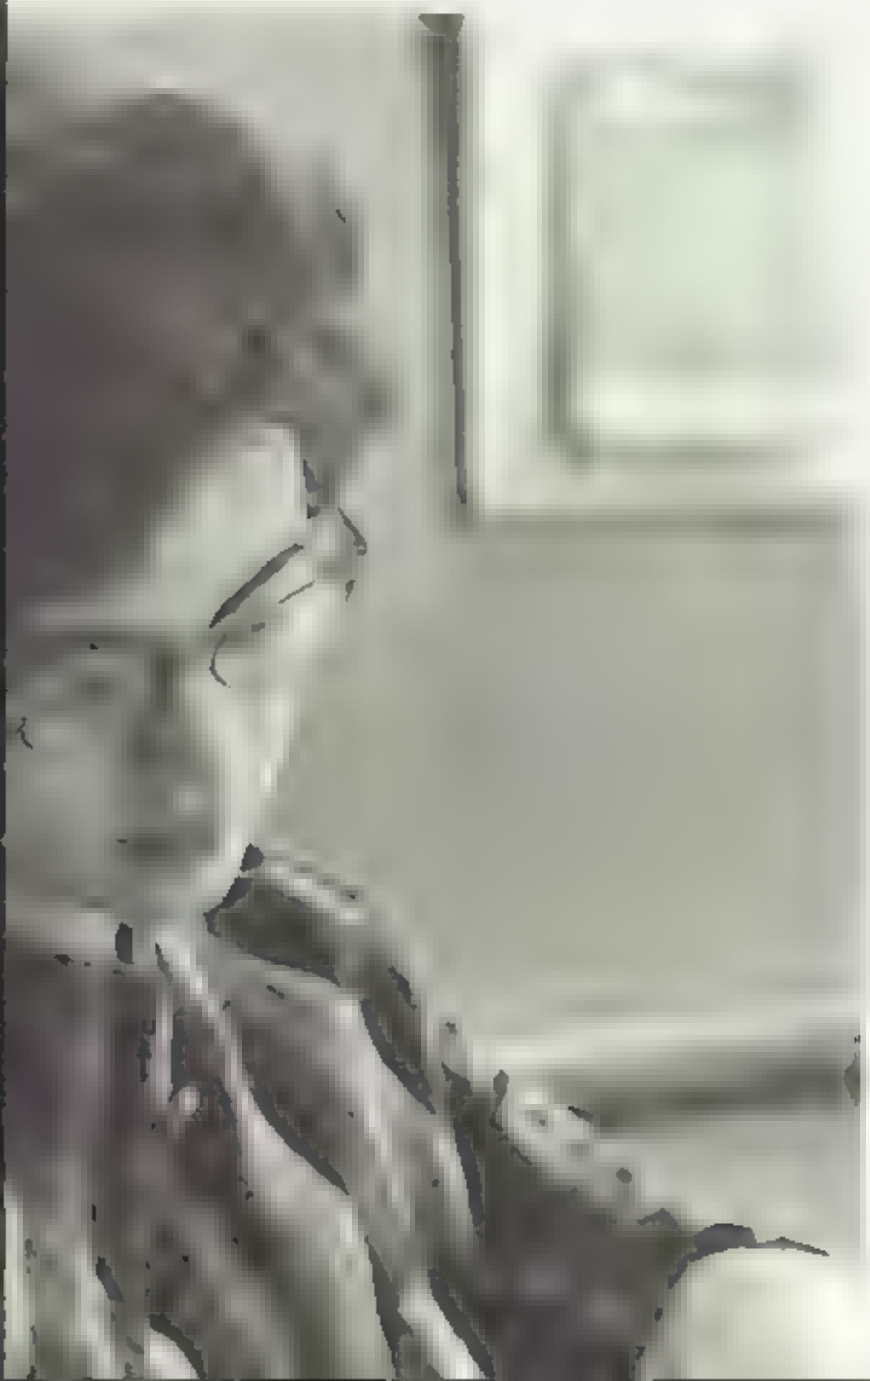

Notice the gleam in her eye as Mrs. Marie Saunders lends an ear to a sophomore's first attempt at public speaking.

Key to Communication

English studies embrace the writings of the great, the strugglings with first speeches, and the concepts of grammar. Our English teachers challenge us, the students of Zeeland High School, to further explore the vast domain of the English language.

Courses in Latin and French broaden our outlook on life while teaching us the foundation of the languages.

Unaware of the camera Mrs. Nancy Scudder continues correcting Junior English themes.

Mrs. Jo Mans studies the faces of her class, while they diligently study Latin verb tenses.

Science and Math- Incorporate Knowledge

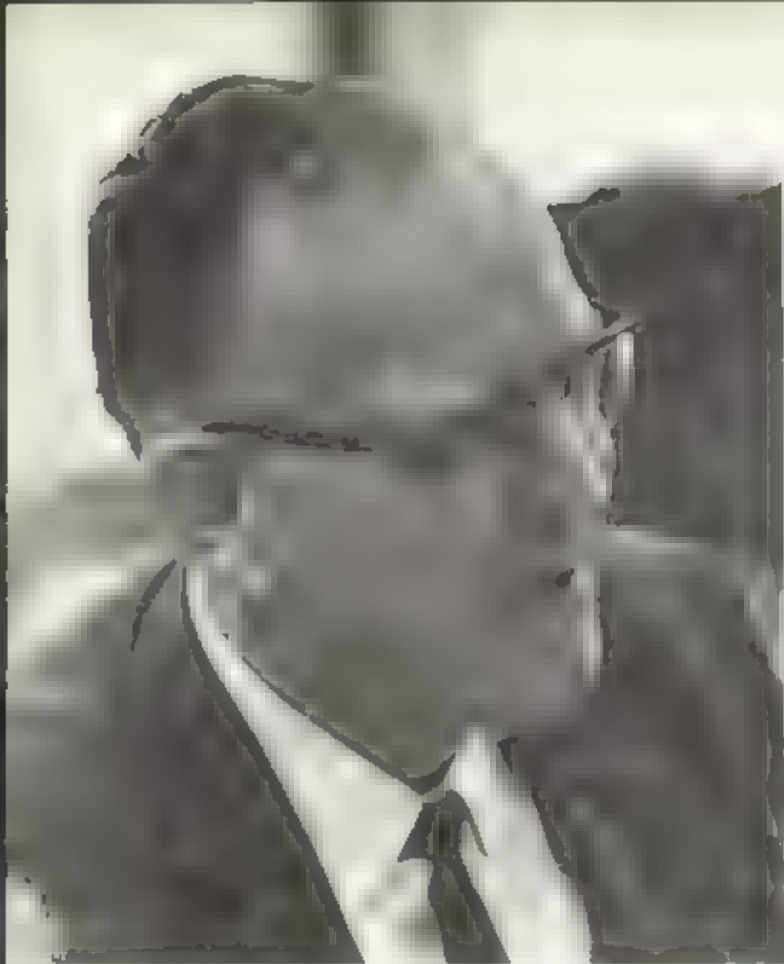

The math and science departments take pride in guiding the students of Zeeland High toward a more practical and useful knowledge of the world that lies before them. Only they realize the value these ancient sciences have for the future.

Mr. Richard Hoodema, Department Chairman, instills the basic fundamentals of science in the minds of his students Cheerfulness presides as Mr. Richard Flaherty, Mr. Raymond Backus, and Mr. James Galer, Math Department chairman, hold their monthly meeting.

"Did you say you're raising hybred azaleas?" asks Mr. Herbert De Klein of one of his agticulture students.

Coach Harley Pierce's study of thought centers around the essentials of Hygiene

Mr. Robert Tift contemplates a question raised by a Chemistry student.

Mr. Norman Schut instructs his pupils in Biology, the science of life.

Seniors receive instruction in the basics of our American government from Mr. Melvin Bourma

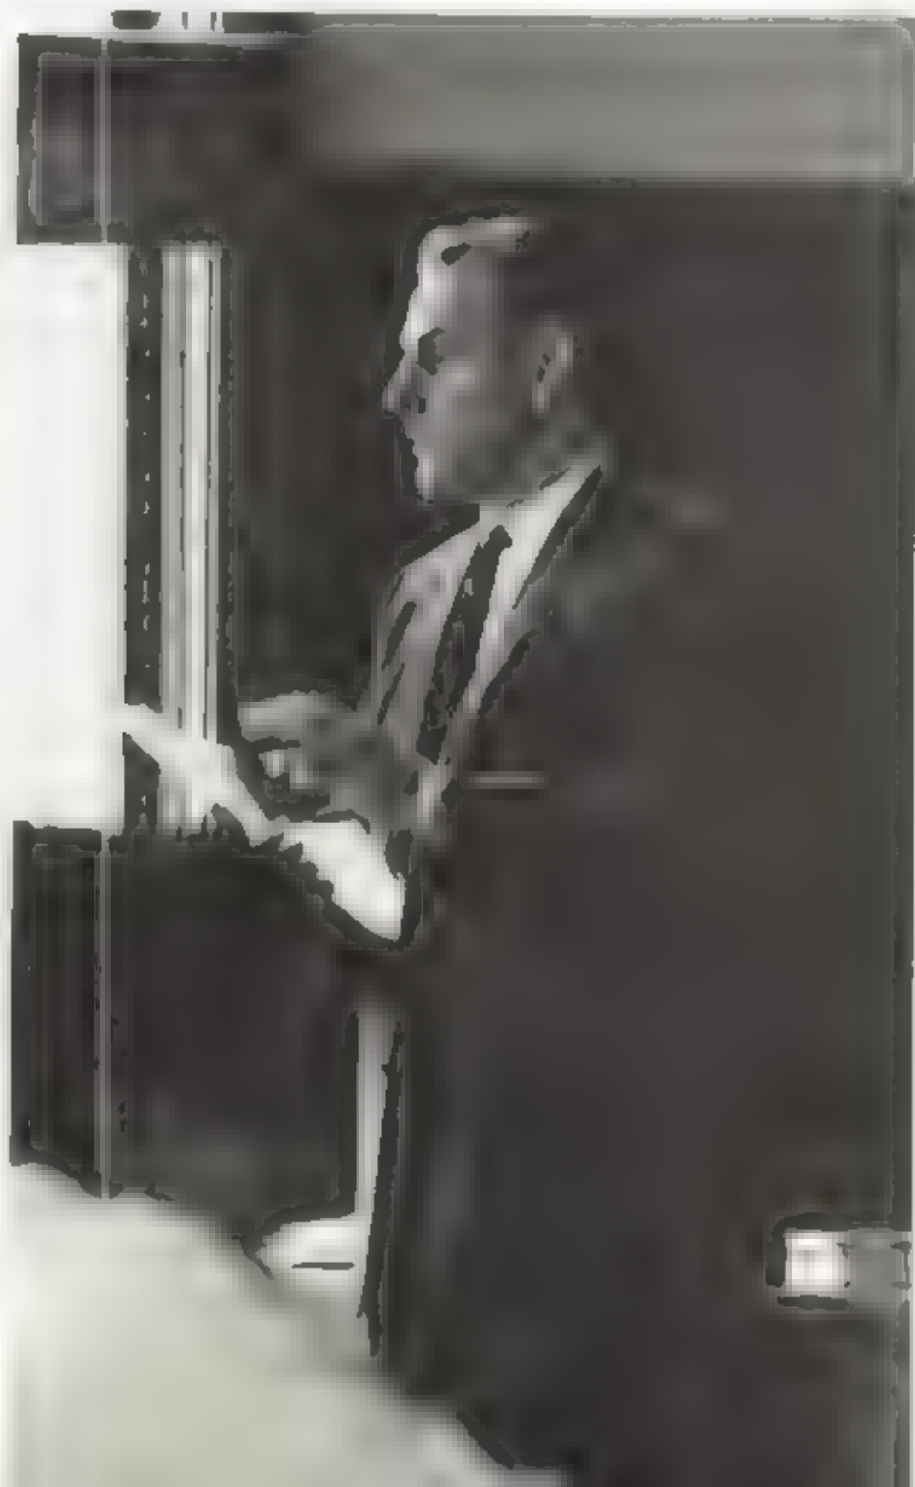

Understanding Our World

The Social Studies department of Zeeland High School endeavors to make the students more keenly aware of the world situation past and present, and their vital role in it.

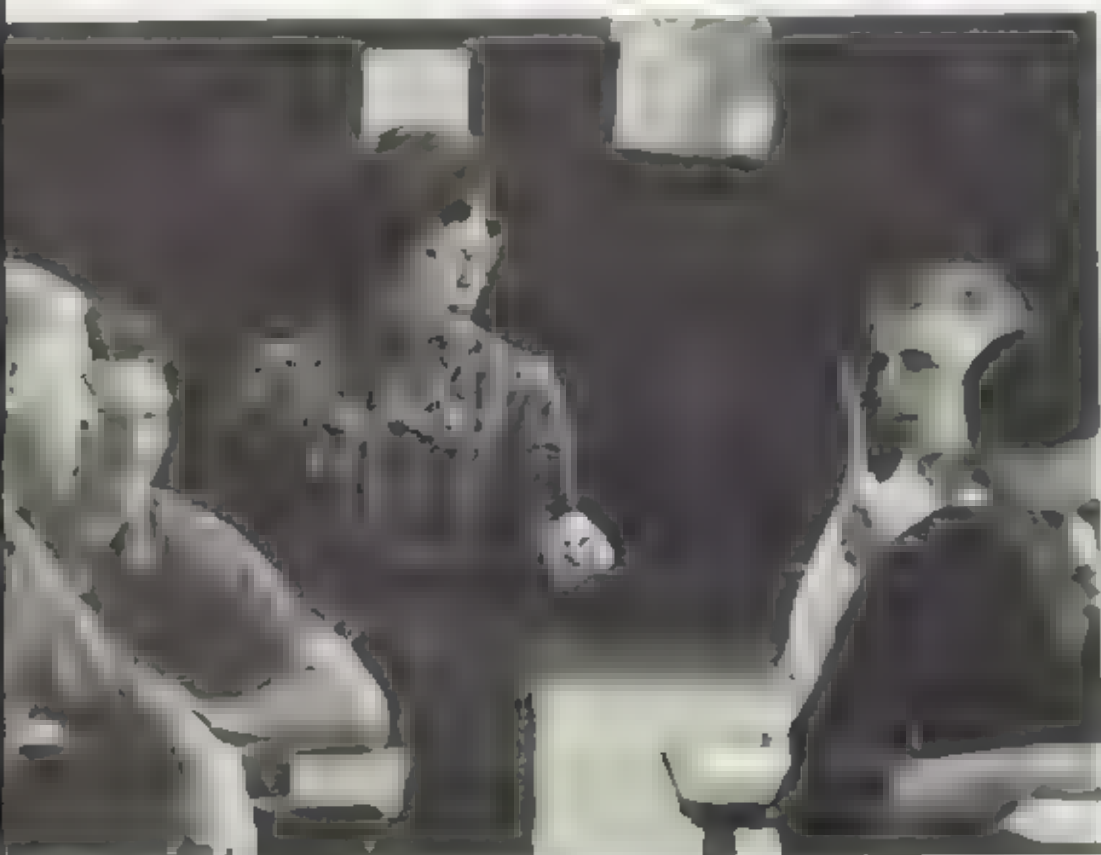

Mr. Edward Davidson depicts Red China's role in the world's economic situation, for his world history class

Mr. John Rumohr outlines the history of our country to his American History students

Office Practice Provides Career Training

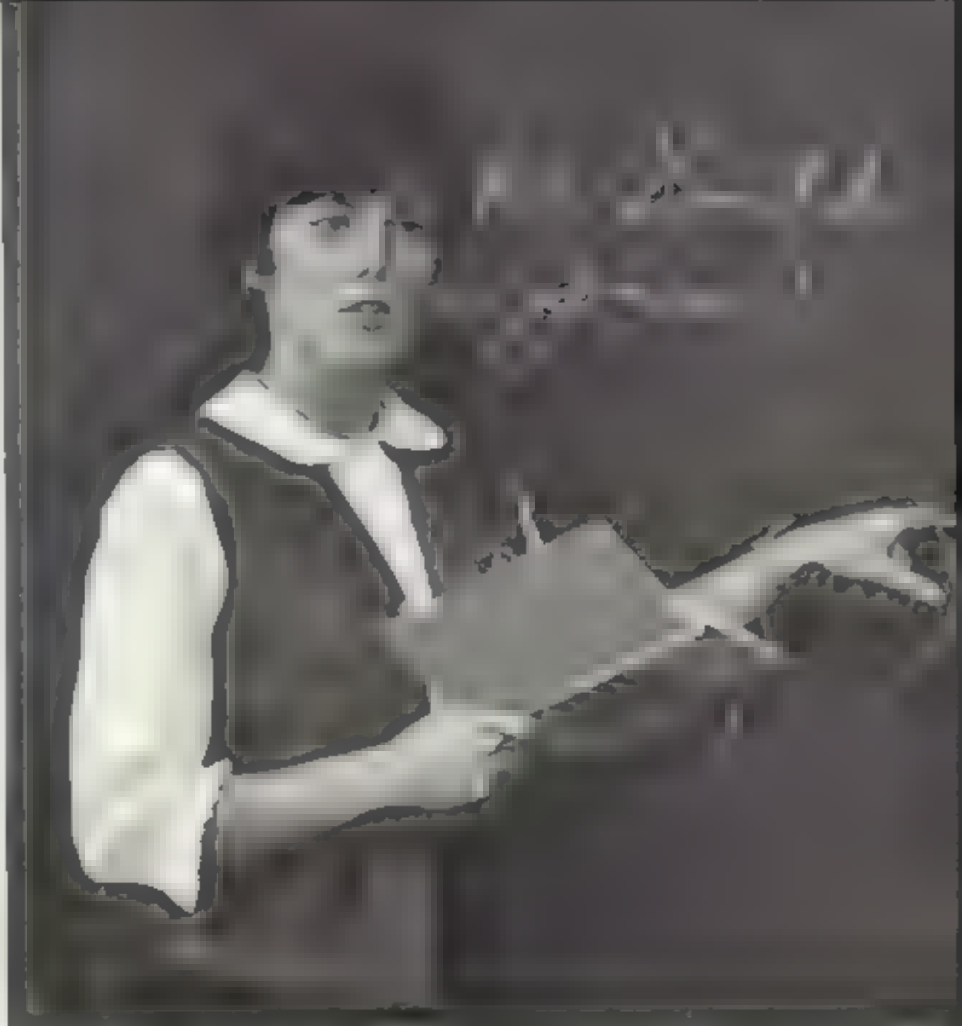

Students are trained by the Business Department in the important skills of typing, shorthand, book-keeping, and related subjects. The teachers try to meet individual needs and better qualify the students for their business careers.

Miss Velma Lloyd installs the knowledge of the essentials of book keeping in her students

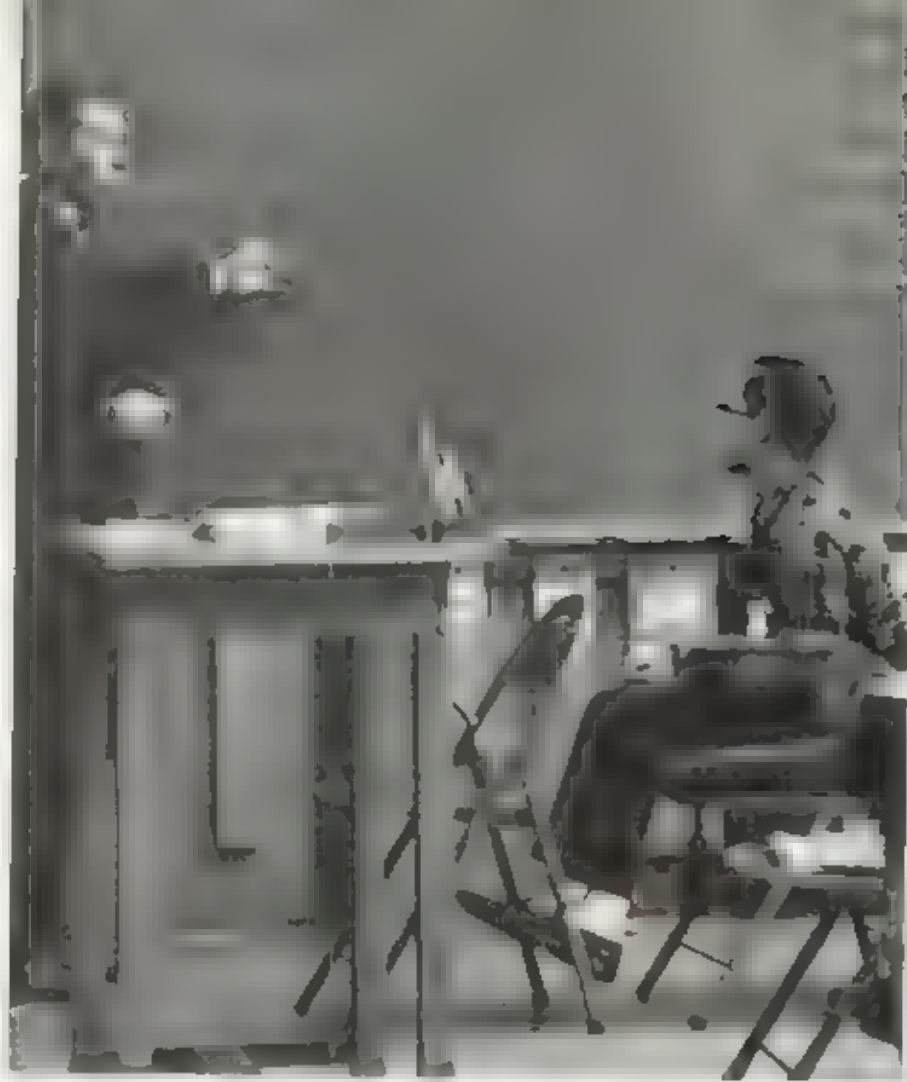

Instruction of good stocks and bonds and how to buy them is taught by Mr William Robertson, department chairman.

The fundamentals of office practice procedures are taught by Mrs Beverly Killmer

Mr. David Graf, typing teacher, waits for his 6th hour typing class to finish a timed writing

Mr. Robert Drew "drills" the basic fundamentals of shop into his boys

Miss Ruth Schrier possesses a good sense of humor, which enables her to instill enthusiasm into her phys. ed. students

Fine Arts, Vocational Training Develop Individual Talents

Mr. Gordon Kerr examines the finished product created by one of his first year metal art students.

Shop, home-ec, phys-ed, band, art . . . all of these are fine arts, either in reality or to the individual. Shop and home-ec are basic fundamentals to ready a student to the needs of a home. Phys-ed is both a physical training of the mind to face reality. Band and art are elite guidance to the finer points of music, skill, and design. All of these prepare a student to face the world with a smile and say, "I'm ready."

Inspired by Miss Joan Steinhoff's ready and encouraging smile, first and second year art students complete their "masterpieces."

Mrs. Olga Schrotenboer and Miss Diane Williamson instruct the future homemakers of tomorrow in the practical and efficient methods of the domestic arts.

ACTOVITIS

Mr. Stanley Alberta, in his second year as librarian at ZHS, intently types up file cards for an assortment of new books just purchased for the library.

Junior, Lila Jansen, takes advantage of one of the many facilities made available to students in the ZHS library.

Library assistant Mrs. De Haan spends many of her evenings patiently sitting at the librarian's desk helping students.

Students have the opportunity to browse through the reference material offered.

The library provides an hour of quietness, relaxation and aid to busy students of Zeeland High.

Library Assists Students

The library, to many students, is a necessary part of school life. Reference material, books, pamphlets and help are obtainable without any trouble. The librarian is always ready with a smile and helping hand to aid students in finding their wanted article. Whether to relax, study, read, or browse, the library is always there. Yes, the library is a necessary part of school life.

Efficiency is the by-word of the student librarians.

The Student Council, the workshop of democracy, is the ZHS student's voice in the affairs of our school. Members of our Student Council also represent us in the Grand Valley Student Council, giving us an opportunity to give and receive advice and to discuss mutual problems with the other Grand Valley schools. We would like to thank Mr. James Galer for the many hours that he puts into this organization as its sponsor.

Craig Hoffman, representing the Zeeland Rotary Club, will attend Camp Emery this summer. There he will take part in an experiment in democratic living.

Chosen by the faculty and seniors on the basis of superior personality, patriotism, and leadership, Violet Winstrom received this year's DAR award.

Tricia Poest and Lynne Munro were chosen as members of the Quill and Scroll, the international honor society for high school journalists who excel in journalism.

Selection for membership in the National Honors Society is a reward for the qualities of leadership, superior character, scholarship, and service. Members are chosen by the faculty and members of the National Honors Society.

Gail Yerkey and Gwen Van Dorp will be this year's American Legion Auxiliary's delegate to Wolverine Girls' State. Here they will gain a knowledge of the fundamental practice and principals of American government through actual practice and control

Selected as the new editor, business manager, and copy editor for the 1966 Stepping Stone were Jody DeFree, Jean Wybenga, and Nancy Meeusen.

Nancy Meeusen, Gwen Van Dorp, and Carol De Vries discuss the upcoming sale of annuals.

Seniors Present "Act Your Age"

Six weeks of rehearsals were topped with the performance of "Act Your Age," the Senior Class play. In order to secure a successful production, costumes were obtained everywhere from Grandmother's closet to the U.S. Coast Guard. A lively touch was added by action scenes involving kissing, spanking, and professional wrestling. The comedy had several surprises as many characters disappeared under the window seat to the tune of Franco, the parrot's, "Lower Away."

Committees and committee chairmen give the much needed help behind stage in preparation for opening night. L-R Elaine Nykamp, Jay Vanden Bosch, Bill Van Eenenaam, Miss Billy Chain, Rick Beyer, and Charlene Zimmer.

The entire cast looks on with horror as maid Cora (Barb Van Eenenaam) displays her judo technique on Commander Stone (Bob Essink).

"Uncle Jim," cries Sandra (Emmy Janssen) as Jim Watson (Ken Baakman,) gleefully administers a well-deserved spanking.

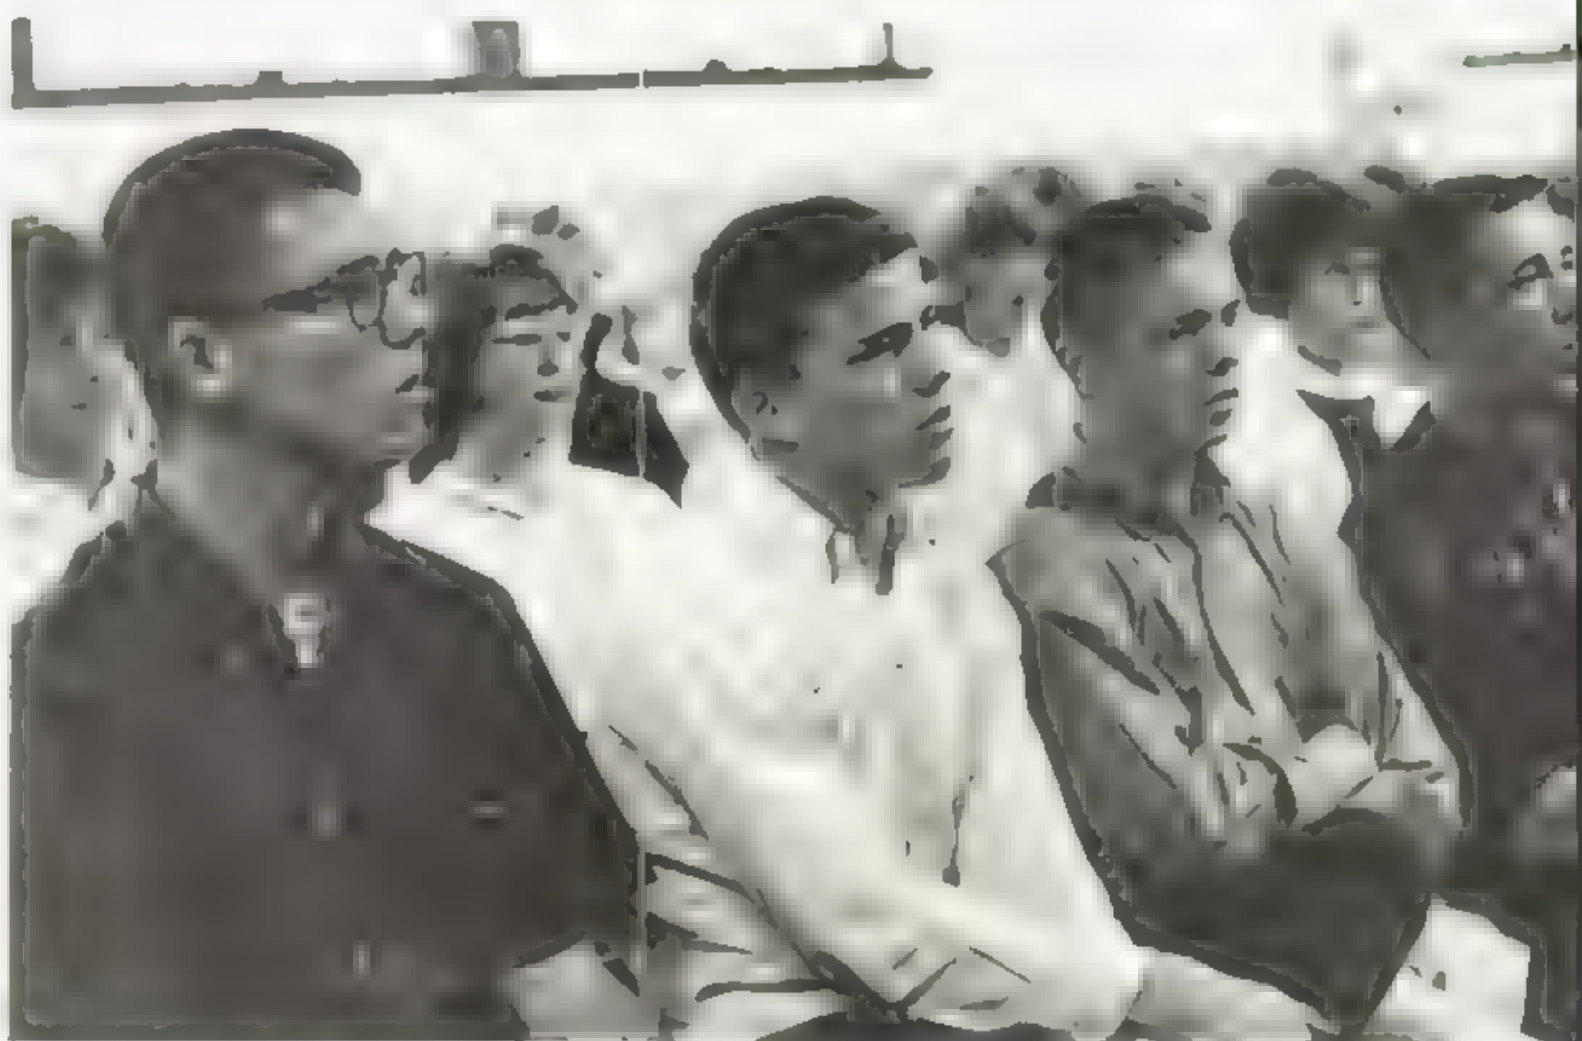

This picture depicts a scene from the Senior play, 'Act Your Age' presented November 1 - 20, 21, 1964.

"They'll never know I'm only 15," exclaims Arlene Verecke "I look at least 21."

Music Lives to Enrich Human Life

The study of music by the Zeeland High School Chorus has brought out many fine performances. This year the chorus performed for various league choir festivals, neighboring churches, community organizations and their own choir concerts.

La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, so go the warming up exercises sung by the chorus each day to get into the mood of the music.

Mr. Dan Ritsema directs the sixty-five member chorus

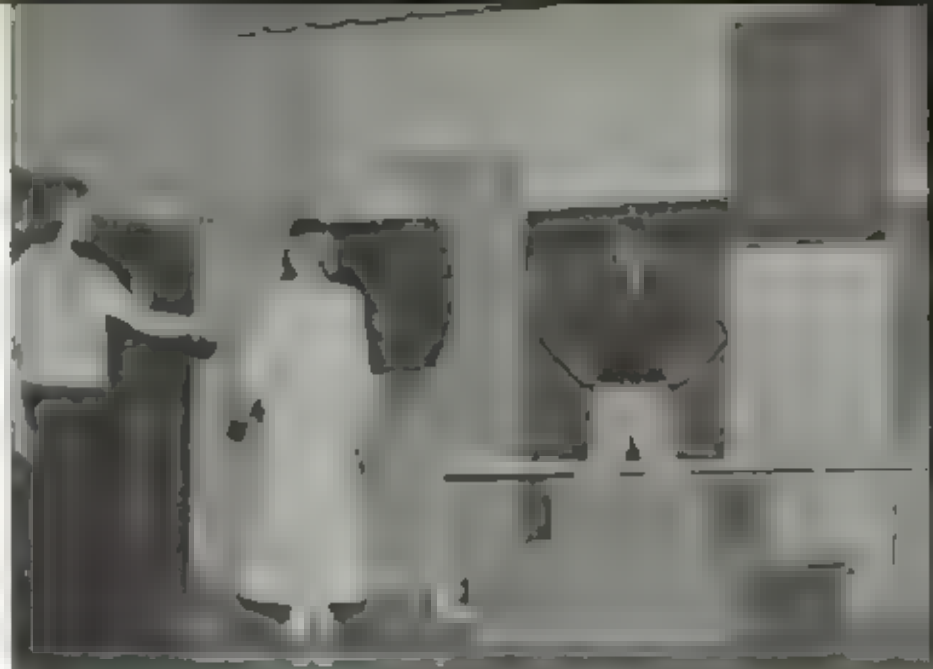

The Chorus contributed many new and beautiful arrangements at the annual Christmas concert

Legend Becomes Reality

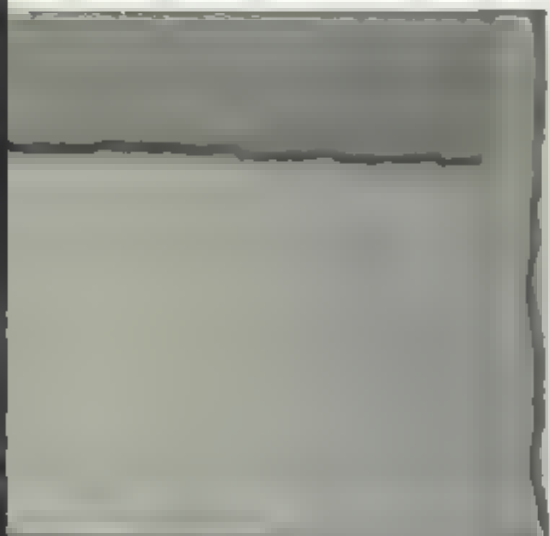

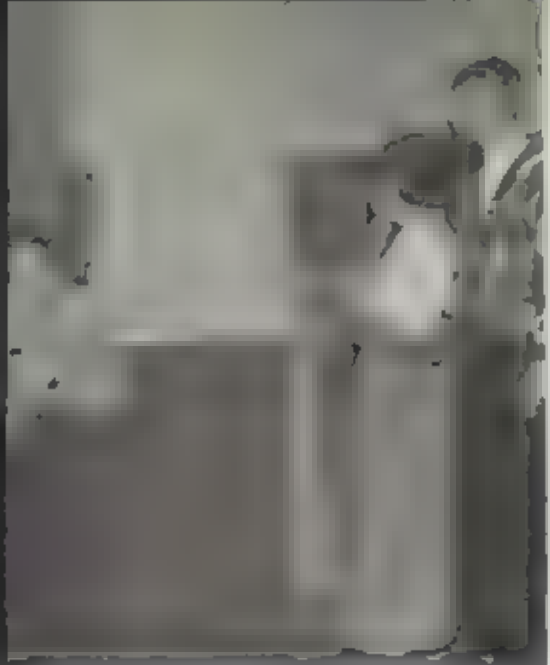

Junior Play

Flibbertygibbet

The entire cast (Bail DeGraaf, Evonne Ensing, Jay Zuverink, Nancy Meussen, Scott Van Hoven, Gwen Van Dorp) listens as Kate (Dianne Wyngarden) explains the strange darkness and wind.

Fearful light and crying winds supply an atmosphere of mysterious magic as Flibbertygibbet is nearly banished to a sunless and waterless waste.

Comedy, anticipation, deceitfulness, jealousy, sorrow, and triumph all flavor the Scotch legend, FLIBBERTYGIBBET. An elfin-like man, Flibbertygibbet enters the lives of the people in a small Scottish village and creates happiness for everyone. Because of the greed of two people, Flibbertygibbet is banished but is again saved by the people's realizations of their wrongs.

"How did you get out of the story?" asks Nannie (Nancy Meeusen) as Flibbertygibbet (Rick Van Eenenaam), the Scotch legend, becomes reality

"And he with a wreath of wheat on his brow . . . " The antics of two jealous sisters (Kate, Dianne Wyngarden; Peg, Gwen Van Dorp) provide an air of comedy.

First-rate Band Brings Honor to ZHS

In fine form the '64-'65 ZHS marching band placed a first division in the annual District Marching Band contest, held for the first time in Zeeland. Playing host to 18 other high school bands, Zeeland competed in Class A division. Snappy uniforms, resounding tone, and high-stepping ranks brought home the band's first division

In contrast to marching season comes several months of endless tuning-up, sight-reading and perfecting pieces. Concerts, contests and tours provide the band with an incentive for excellence. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Brower and Mr. Dan Ritsema, the band strives for highest merits.

Clubs Prepare Students for Future Occupations

FUTURE
TEACHERS

The Future Teacher's Club attempts to portray the various aspects of the teaching profession. Each month, several members of our faculty, meet with the F.T.A. in order to establish a better personal relationship.

FUTURE FARMERS

Field trips to Lansing, Chicago, and County Fairs comprise a great share of Zeeland High's F.F.A. activities.

FUTURE NURSES

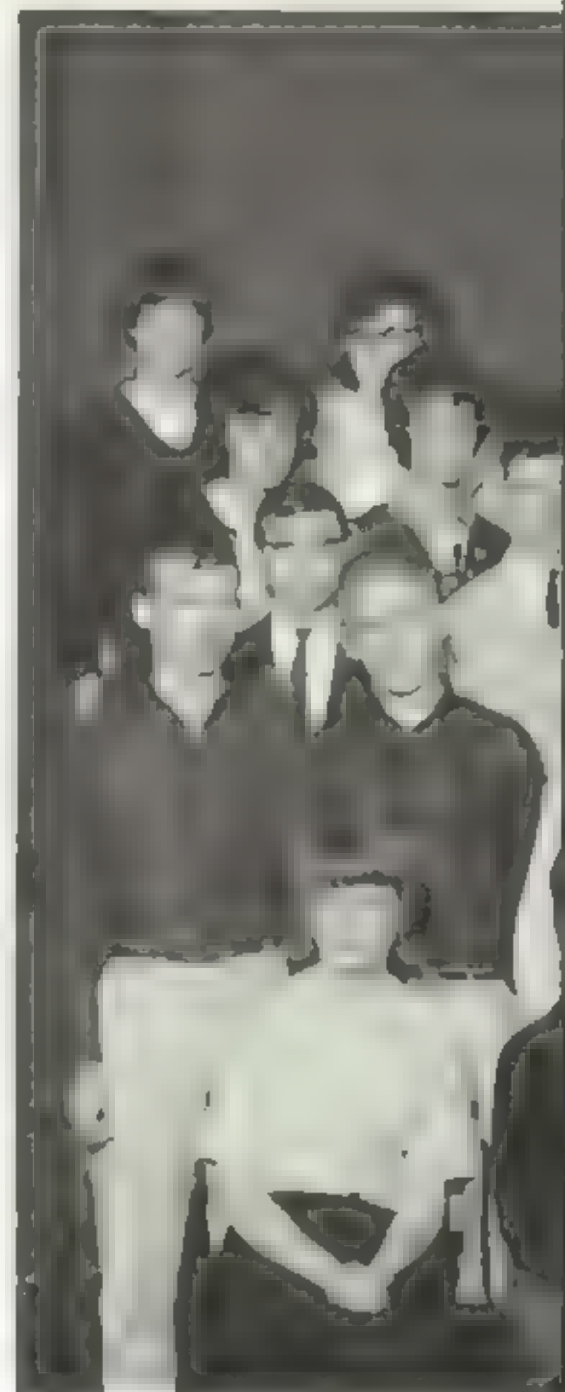

To obtain a better insight into the nursing profession, one of the activities of the F.N.A. is to visit several hospitals and institutions each year.

Foreign Languages Promote Understanding of Culture

LATIN CLUB

Comprised of second year students, the Latin Club meets once a month to participate in Latin games, songs, and skits. Mrs. Mans, the Latin instructor, sponsors the club.

ADVANCED FRENCH

Foreign Languages Promote Understanding of Culture

The purpose of learning languages is not only to learn grammar and to speak the language, but to gain a better understanding of the history and customs of the countries. Both the French and Latin Clubs hold banquets as the highlight of the year.

Looking forward to their monthly meeting of games, fun and song, the Advanced French Club students are given the opportunity to use open conversation. The club is comprised of second year students with Miss Ver Hage as sponsor.

FIRST-YEAR FRENCH

The first year French students also participate in a French Club. Number games and French songs are their main activities.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Ec. Club strives to employ practical and efficient methods in homemaking.

At a Home Ec. Club meeting, a few girls cook-up a new dish to be tested on fellow members.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club, composed of senior girls, form a most important segment of Z.H.S. Commercial Department. They perform various typing services for the community as well as for our faculty.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is composed of boys interested in promoting better citizenship in our community

The Girls Athletic Association better known as the G A A , meets bi-weekly Tuesday nights after school to participate in a variety of intramural sports

Selling pop and candy and other refreshments at the football and basketball games is the main activity of the Athletic sisters. The proceeds from the sales go towards the purchasing of additional athletic equipment

SENIOR PEP CLUB

V I C T-O R Y that's the Senior Battle Cry! This year the Senior Girls Pep Club has added spirit and spice to our athletic events. The newly formed club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Titt has taken charge of many pep meetings, posters and other activities to inspire spirit and fight in students and players

Z CLUB

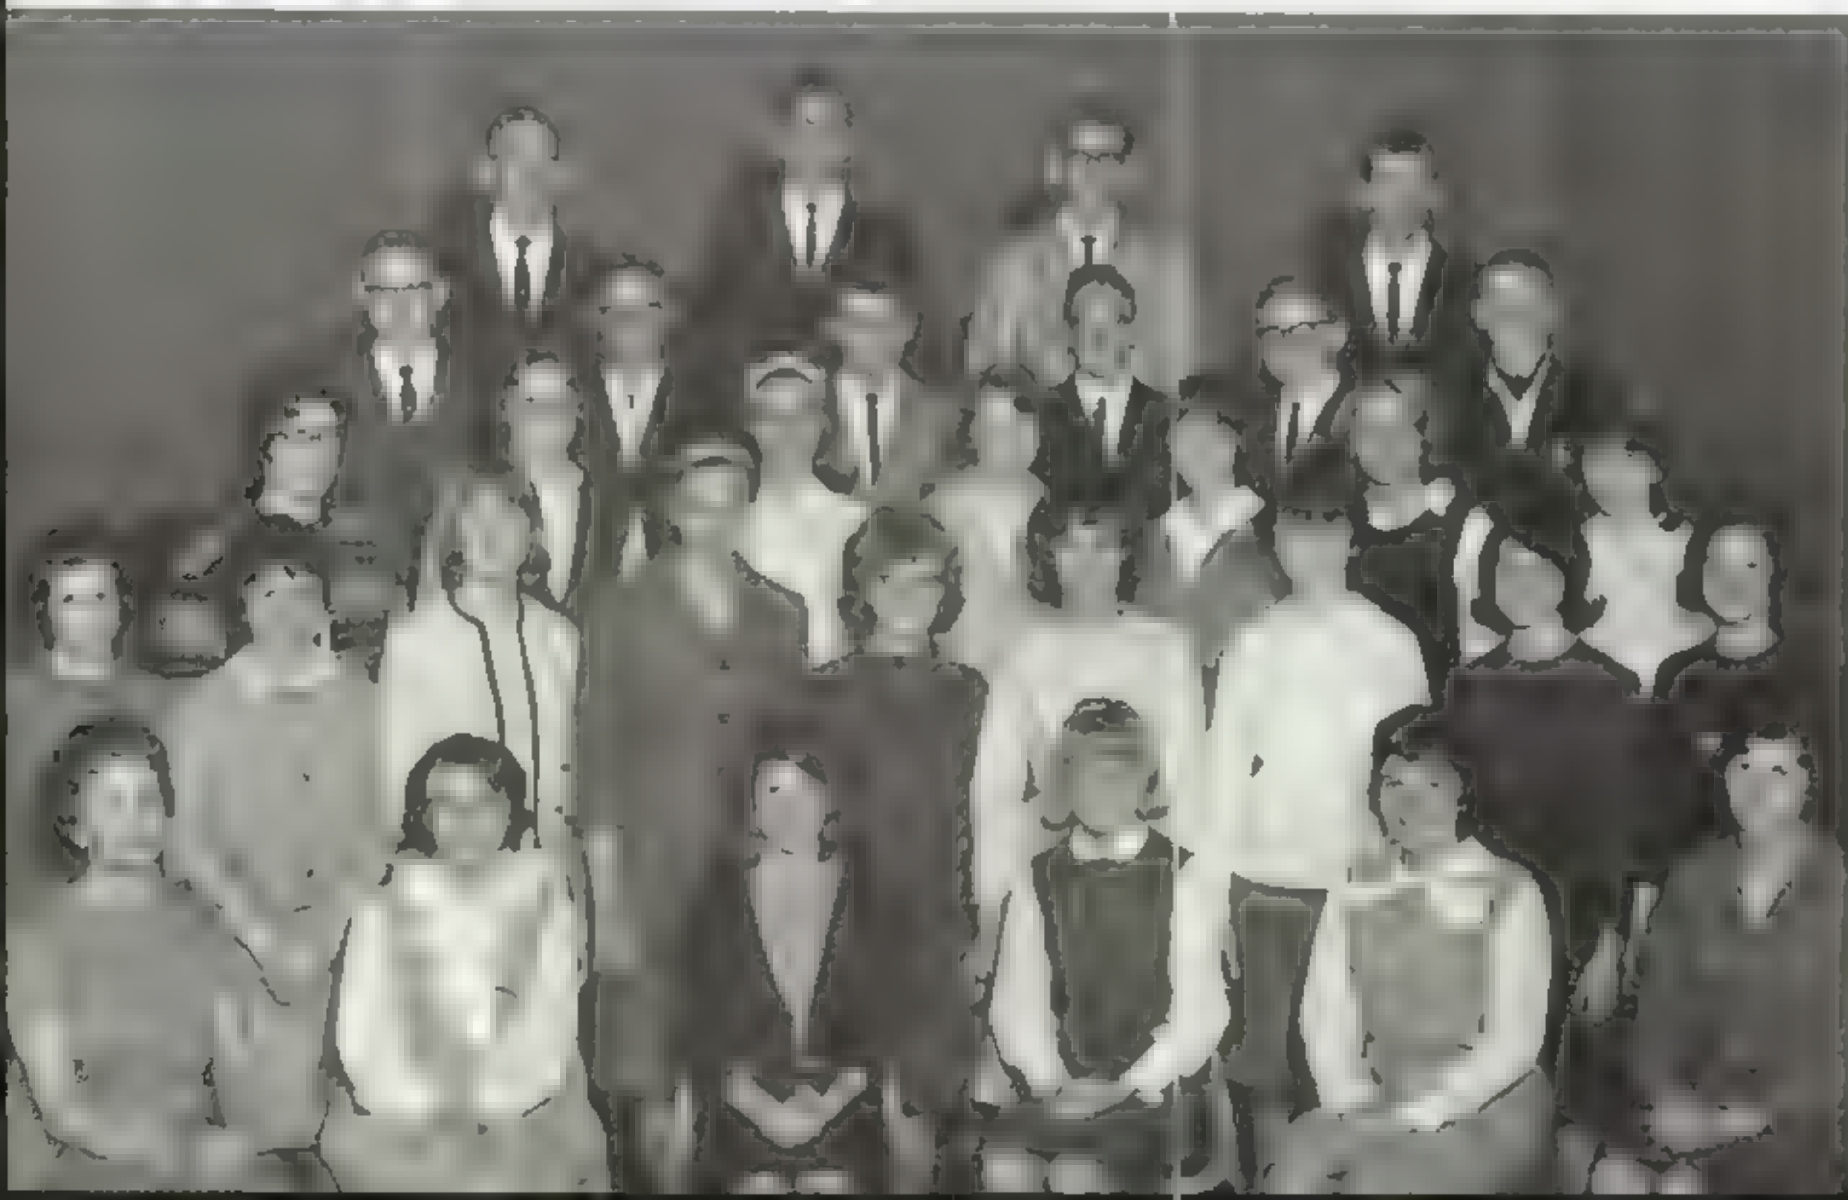

The Z Club is comprised of the many holders of varsity letters earned in football, cross country, basketball, wrestling, baseball, track, or golf.

Forensics, Debate Add to Students' Schedules

The forensic contests were held in the early part of March. Contestants spent many hours in preparation for division of their choice. The categories were comprised of original oratory, declamation, interpretive and humorous readings. The first and second place winners represented Zeeland High in the district contest held on April 8 at Grandville High School.

CHESS CLUB

Meeting in the library, the chess club, sponsored by Mr. Alberda, teaches the game to new members and improves the skills of the senior members.

DEBATE

This year's debate team is comprised of Jay Zaverink, Dirk Kramer, Dan Davis, Darryl Raterink, John Barents, and Tim Harrison. The varsity squad has won 2 debates and placed third out of 6 competing schools in the Grand Valley.

SPORTS

Violet Winstrom Reigned Queen for 1964

October 16 will long be remembered as the climax of the 1964 Homecoming festivities. Three days of excitement were ended with the coronation of Queen Violet, her reign over the half-time ceremonies and the Homecoming Dance.

Everyone Gets into Swing of Homecoming

Leading the Homecoming festivities was the traditional snake dance Thursday night. Beginning in the school parking lot, it "snaked" its way through town to the football field.

The Senior Girls Pep Club held an exciting football game, in which the Zeeland Chix defeated the West Ottawa Pansies.

"Let Me Call You Sweetheart," proved to be an appropriate theme for the 1964 Student-Alumni Homecoming Dance. The Galaxies set the mood and atmosphere with their music.

Coach Harley Pierce inspired players and fans, with a pep talk, at the pre-game bonfire with arousing "Victory is our cry."

Barb Van Dort and Mary Kroll give the varsity cheerleaders "a lift" to the pep rally which was held at the athletic field on Thursday, October 15.

School Spirit Runs High in '64-'65 Football

The football team had an unfortunate season ending with a two-win, seven-loss record, but the boys showed great spirit and tried hard even against tough odds. They improved as the season progressed and looked better in each game.

It might be said that the old adage, 'All's well that ends well,' could be applied to our football season. We came back to win the last game of the year by defeating Hudsonville 13-12.

Jack Taylor, center, made the all-conference first team. Greg Barence, tackle; and Duane Vanden Bosch, fullback, made the all-conference second team. Duane gained 822 yards rushing this year.

The co-captains were Arch Ter Haar and Ford Berghorst.

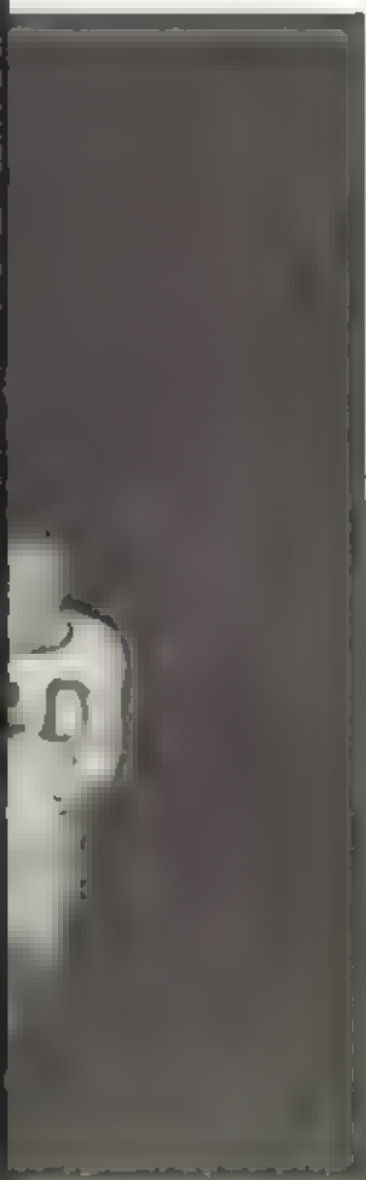

Quarterback Arch Ter Haar (20) laterals to halfback Bill Wetherbee (40).

Zeeland: Runner-up in District Tournaments

Individual and team records were set by this year's varsity basketball team whose record ended with 8 wins and 10 losses, a definite improvement over last year's record.

This year's team was tops in scoring 1256 points in 18 games for a new total point record for the school.

Four players averaged in double figures. Senior Lloyd Schout, team captain, averaged 20.3 points per game (a new record). He ended the season with 366 points in 18 games, breaking the school record he set last year. He also established a new record he set last year. He also established a new record for total points scored while in high school. Playing three years as a regular, he made 840 points. He collected 202 rebounds, averaging 11 per game this year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Scores

Senior Bob Essink was the most improved player and top rebounder with 206 rebounds, averaging 11 per game. He made 236 points, averaging 13 per game, and led the team in field goal percentage with 46 per cent.

Senior Ford Berghorst averaged 11 points a game and garnered 198 points. He was also strong on the boards with 174 rebounds.

Dave Costello, Junior, forward, made 13 points per game with a total of 198 points. He made 70 percent of his free throws.

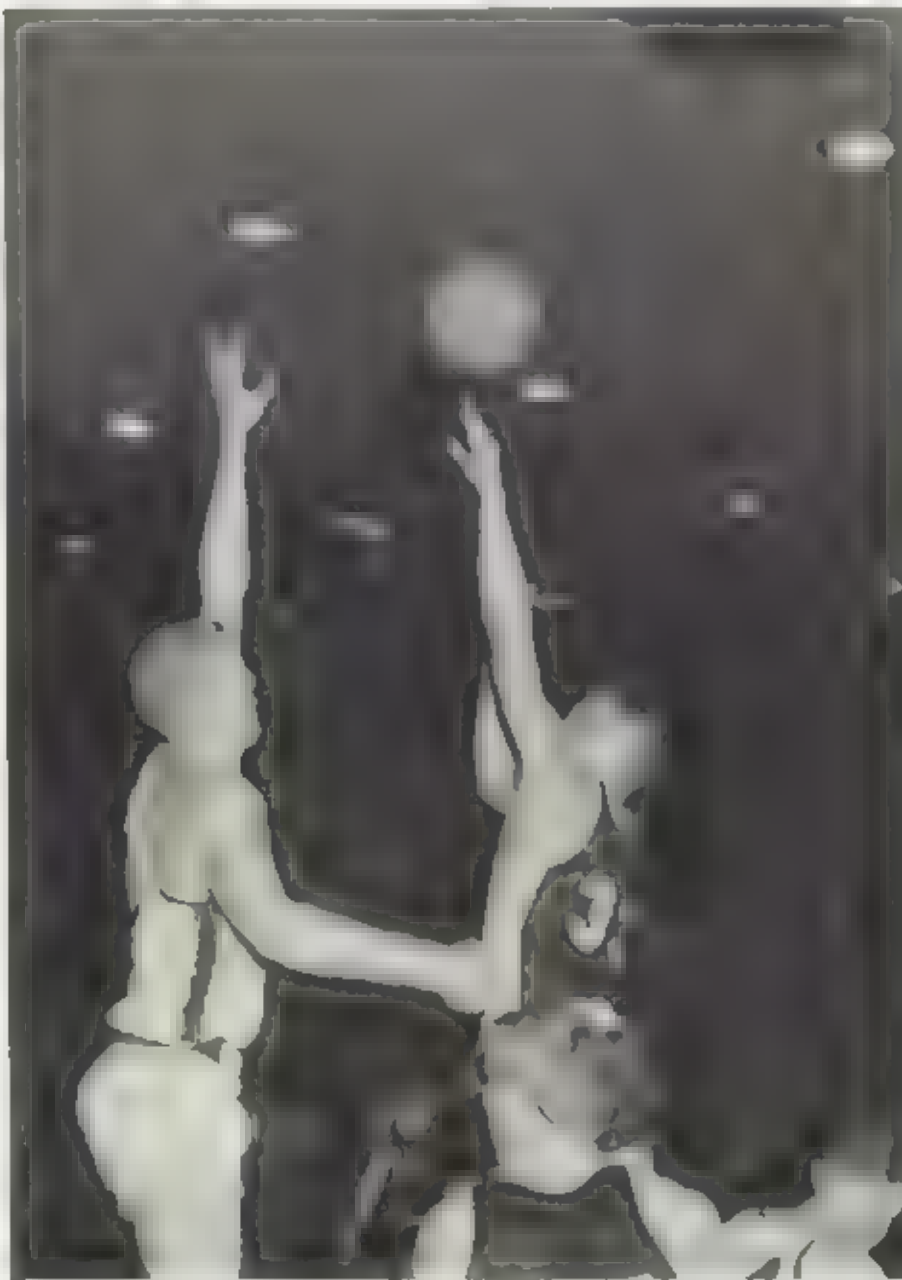

Scrappy guards such as Tom DeVries and Mark Engle alternated at one of the guard spots. Scoot Van Hoven was a valuable replacement in the front line.

Other players, Gary Van Dyke, Roger Vanden Brink, Jack Pikaart, and Ron Stygstra, demonstrated fine spirit and support which contributed to the success of the team.

break down his opponent

Mat Triumphant

With a record of six wins, seven defeats and one tie the Zeeland wrestling team, coached by Mr. Gordon Kerr, broke the school record for the fastest pin, which was 21 seconds. In the regional tournaments, the grapplers took third place out of 23 schools with three firsts; Jim Rynsburger, Bob Rynsburger and Bill Zeerip, one second; Ed Heyboer, and one fourth; Gary Pritchard. These boys carried the Chix to the State tournaments to capture fifth place out of 64 schools. Co-captain Jim Rynsburger took a first to make him a two time State champ, while Bill Zeerip took a second.

Our fourth annual Christmas Invitational Tournament showed three Chix champs, Tom Blauwkamp, Jim Rynsburger and Ed Heyboer. Again in the league meet, held in our gym, the team showed it's spirit and drive by taking home two league crowns, Jim Rynsburger and Jack Taylor.

in League Competition

Named to the all-conference team were pitchers Marlin Vis and Don Kroodsma. Corwin Boeskool was named to the second team. Marlin Vis set a record with 8 wins and 1 loss. Mr. Jack Rumohr is the coach of varsity baseball while Mr. Dan Ritsema coaches reserve.

Jack Taylor fouls the ball down the third base line.

Returning Lettermen Asset to Tennis and Golf

Ron Stystra and Rick Boyer had the honor of being named Most Valuable Player by their teammates in golf and tennis respectively.

Track: an Individual Sport

The 1964 track record seems a little bleak with only one win and seven losses. It can be considered a successful season because each team member bettered himself as the season progressed.

Coach Norm Schout looks for many returning thinclads which will help make the 1965 season even more successful.

I wonder what we're having for lunch are the thoughts of a hungry Freshman, Paul De Jonge.

Lester Vandell Heivel discovers the next hour assembly has been canceled.

Mary Kroll utters the cry "Oh No! Not the bell!"

Enjoying the beautiful fall afternoon, Judy Moberg, Patricia Berg, and Gerd Ten Brink pause for a minute of conversation before the buses depart.

Jim Walters and Bill DeGraf sympathize with a fellow student who has just completed a hectic morning.

Letting his imagination run away with him Jay Vanden Bosch pictures himself as the noble MacBeth at the time of his first victorious battle

Karin Weule diligently works to better understand the basic concepts of American History.

Gary Engelsman takes time out of his daily routine to enjoy the appetizing lunches prepared by our competent lunch staff

With a glint in his eye
Bob Brower has never an overlooked a take

Rodney Belkus works fast and furious toward the completion of his daily assignments

Nancy Marink discovers the key to good typing through intense concentration.
